

Inaccurate safety statements about fruits and vegetables and pesticide residues resulted in low income shoppers reporting they would be less likely to purchase any fruits and vegetables – organic or conventional.

Peer reviewed research findings published in Nutrition Today.
To learn more, visit safefruitsandveggies.com

